

THE 2023 DEEP FRIED MARS BAR CHALLENGE

THE STORY

1

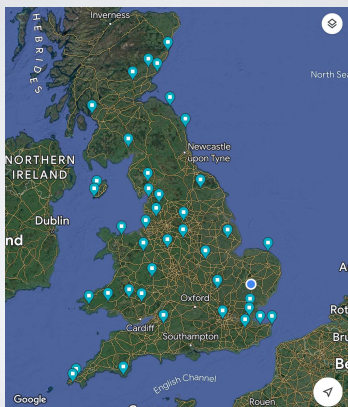

QUICK RECAP

The challenge was to visit regional food vendors
The closest was less than 50 miles away but most were far enough to warm the oil

The furthest away was Stonehaven in Scotland

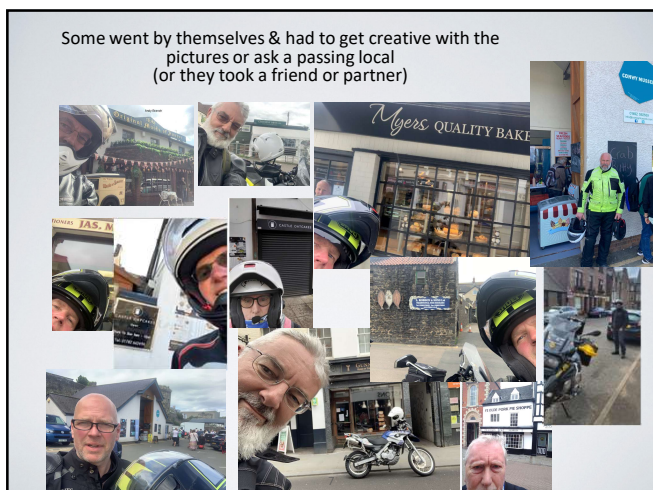

THERE WERE 40 PLACES TO CHOOSE FROM

I RECEIVED 100'S OF PHOTOS
BUT MY FAVORITES ARE WHEN THEY GET THE SHOP
OWNER TO POSE WITH THEM.

DOES BEL LOOK A BIT RELUCTANT ?

FOOD WAS TRIED INSIDE, OUTSIDE OR TAKEN AWAY

9

21 MEMBERS SIGNED UP

BUT LIFE GOT IN THE WAY FOR 7
SO ONLY 14 ACTUALLY TOOK PART

Most popular places were

Malden For Oysters	Cromer for Crabs
Leigh-on-sea for Jellied Eels	Maidstone for Pie & Mash
Bedford for a Bedfordshire Clanger	(but they were always sold out!)
Horncastle For Plum Loaf	Melton Mowbray for Pork Pie
Broadstairs for Gipsy Tart	Bakewell for a Tart

10

POINTS WERE SCORED FOR EACH PLACE VISITED

POINTS VARIED BY DISTANCE

1 FOR A LOCAL PLACE
36 FOR THE FURTHEST AWAY

11

Most did as I expected & stayed within a
200 mile day trip range

Some did an occasional longer trip

Well done to :-

David Wood	David Richard
Lee Gage	Trevor Fisk
Tim Elms	Martin Drury
Keith Gilbert	Tony Fuller

Who all scored between 16 and 40

12

TWO WENT FURTHER
NEVILLE GOODCHILD SCORED 151
& IAN JOHNSON SCORED 127

13

NEVILLE DID MAKE IT TO THE CARRON FISH BAR IN FORFAR,
BUT SADLY, THE CHALLENGE HAD ENDED

HE WOULD HAVE SCORED A VERY HIGH 213

The Carron was closed when Brian first went -
So he returned with Neville!

BEYOND ALL EXPECTATIONS WE DON'T HAVE ONE WINNER!

WE HAVE FOUR WINNERS

4 people have been to
EVERY SINGLE PLACE
on the list
